

YOUNG WRITERS CAMP SUMMER 2010

AGES 6-18

TEXAS STATE UNIVERSITY

SPONSORED BY THE CENTRAL TEXAS WRITING PROJECT

Central Texas Writing Project teachers share the belief that students learn to write when they are inspired in a supportive, non-threatening environment.

Our goal for Young Writers' Camp is to give all our young writers, regardless of skill level, the opportunity to compose in a variety of styles, to become more self-confident in their own writing ability, and to learn to appreciate the ability of others.

What is Young Writers' Camp?

Our summer programs will inspire creative thinking and writing. The young writers will explore various writing styles and methods of self-expression. They will meet and write with new friends.

Who should attend?

Students ages 6 -18 who are interested in writing.

Where will the camp be held?

Campers will meet at the Texas State University campus in San Marcos OR in Round Rock.

When will the camp be held?

July 5-9 and July 12-16 9 am—noon: ages 6-8 & 9-11

July 5-9 and July 12-16 1:00 pm-4:00 pm: ages 12-14

July 5- 9 and July 12-16 –1:30-4:30pm: ages 15-18

What is the cost of the camp?

The cost is $225 per child. If two or more siblings are enrolled, cost is $200 per child. Each young writer will receive a T-shirt, a book, and a published anthology, a collection of the writing submitted by each participant.

How do I register my child?

Simply mail in the registration form with your payment before June 28, 2010. The first 60 applicants will be accepted.
